

Year 12

Half term 1 September-October	Half term 2 October-December	Half term 3 January-February	Half term 4 February-April	Half term 5 April-May	Half term 6 June-July
•Education - Role of education (functionalism, Marxism, New Right) - Class, gender and ethnicity in education - Internal and external factors •Families & Households - Changing patterns of marriage, divorce and family diversity - Theories of the family (functionalism, Marxism, feminism, personal life)	•Education - Educational policy and inequality - Globalisation and education - In-school factors (labelling, subcultures, institutional racism) •Families & Households - Demographic trends (birth, death, ageing population, migration) - Childhood, family roles and power relationships	•Education - Revision and synoptic links with theory/methods - Application of sociological research in education •Families & Households - Revision and synoptic links with theory/methods	•Research Methods - Positivism, interpretivism, and methodological perspectives - Primary and secondary data: questionnaires, interviews, observations, official statistics •Research Methods in Context - Applying methods to the study of education	•Media •- The new media •- Media representations of ethnicity, gender, age, class • - Ownership and control of the media •Media •- Media effects and audiences •- Globalisation and popular culture • - Revision and synoptic links	• Y12 Content revision in advance of AP3 exam period. • Introduction to Crime and Deviance and theory and methods

Year 13

Half term 1 September-October	Half term 2 October-December	Half term 3 January-February	Half term 4 February-April	Half term 5 April-May
•Crime and Deviance - Functionalist, strain and subcultural theories - Marxist and neo-Marxist views - Interactionism and labelling theory •Theory and Methods - Sociological theory: consensus, conflict, structural vs. action, modernity vs. postmodernity	•Crime and Deviance - Realist approaches (left and right) - Gender, class and ethnicity in crime - Globalisation and green crime •Theory and Methods - Sociology as a science, objectivity and values, social policy	•Crime and Deviance - Control, prevention and punishment - Victimology and state crime •Theory and Methods - Revision and synoptic links	•Revision •- Crime and Deviance •- Theory and Methods •- Education and Families & Households • - Media	•Revision • - Exam preparation and practice papers

