

French

- A level
- AQA 7652

Assessment

Three exams, taken at the end of the 2-year course:

- Paper 1: Listening, reading and writing
- Paper 2: Writing
- Paper 3: Speaking

Aim

Students study technological and social change, looking at diversity and the benefits it brings. They will study highlights of French-speaking artistic culture, including francophone music and cinema, and learn about political engagement and who wields political power in the French-speaking world.

Content

- Aspects of French-speaking society
- Artistic culture in the Francophone world
- Multiculturalism in French-speaking society
- Aspects of political life in French-speaking society
- Grammar
- One text and one film from the specification

Why choose French?

You'll enjoy this course if you are passionate about the French language, but also if you enjoy learning about French culture. The course will enable you to develop your fluency in French and to communicate with greater confidence. You will have the chance to explore French cinema and literature and develop your fluency in spoken French.